Third Annual Rural Health Care Providers Diabetes Update Slated for Jerome

The Diabetes Center Foundation is sponsoring their third annual “Rural Health Care Providers Diabetes Update” for health care providers on Friday, Oct. 13, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. This is in partnership with South Central District Health, St. Benedicts Family Medical Center, the Idaho Diabetes Prevention and Control Program, Idaho Dairy Council, and the Lions Club. The seminar will be held at the Monastery of the Ascension (The Priory) located at 541 East 100 South in Jerome.

This free seminar features Dr. Robert Kwun, a retinal specialist; Dr. Keith Tolman, a gastroenterologist; Dr. Ken Wilhelm, an endocrinologist; and Dr. Nagraj Narasimhan, a nephrologist. Topics include: emerging treatments for diabetes, diabetes liver disease, diabetic retinopathy, and end stage renal disease and diabetes.

The seminar is free except for $15 for continuing education credits. Four hours of continuing medical education (CME) credits have been applied for, as well as four hours of continuing education units (CEU) for nurses, dieticians, pharmacists, and physical therapists will be available.

Pre-registration is required. Call Susie Beem at South Central District Health at 737-5946 or email Ann Bybee at annxbybe@sbfmc.org to register.
